H.R.H. THE PRINCE TO MAKE A PRIVATE VISIT TO WASHINGTON, D.C.

His Royal Highness The Prince of Kaharagia is set to undertake a private visit to Washington, D.C., from Sunday, the 25th of June, to Friday, the 30th of June 2023. This visit underscores the Prince's unyielding dedication to his life's work in the field of education, specifically his passion for history education.

In Washington, D.C., the Prince's itinerary is filled with private engagements and meetings. Many of these will be educational in nature as the Prince seeks to expand his knowledge and share his passion for history with those he meets.

Despite the predominantly private nature of this visit, His Royal Highness recognises the importance of staying connected with the Kaharagian diaspora and friends of Kaharagia. To this end, there will be select opportunities for these individuals to meet with the Prince.

Those interested in these special gatherings should directly contact the Prince's Secretariat for further information regarding the dates and venues. Due to the limited capacity of these events, allocation will be on a first-come-first-served basis.

For any additional enquiries, please contact the Secretariat at secretariat@kaharagia.org. The Secretariat will strive to respond to all queries in a timely manner. This will be the primary channel of communication for all matters related to the Prince's visit.
